I hereby request permission to examine the manuscripts listed below for the following purpose:

Book Article Dissertation Other

Title/Subject of research:

I understand that permission to examine manuscripts, if granted, does not include permission to publish the contents of the manuscripts or any excerpt therefrom at any time, and that separate written application for permission to publish in any form, or to quote in a dissertation, must be made to the appropriate Curator at Houghton Library, specifying the manuscripts or excerpts. I agree to abide by the Curator's decision.

I understand further that the Library makes no representation that it is the owner of the copyright or other intellectual property right in any manuscript, and that permission to publish must also be obtained from the owner of the copyright (the author or his/her transferees, heirs, legatees or literary executors).

If I request reproduction of any manuscript listed below, I agree that the reproduction be made solely for my convenience in examining the manuscript; that it is to be returned upon completion of my project as I have described it in this application; that the reproduction will not itself be reproduced; and that it will not be examined by or transferred to any other person or institution without the prior written permission of the appropriate Curator.

In consideration of my being granted permission to examine any manuscript on the terms set forth above, I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the University, its officers, employees and agents from and against all claims made by any person asserting that s/he is an owner of the copyright or other intellectual property right.
