Anthropological Literature is a bibliographic index to articles in journals and edited works received by the Tozzer Library, the anthropology library of Harvard University, as well as selected online and open access journals. The e-resource contains more than 650,000 records dating to the early 19th century. 10,000 new records are added yearly, updated on a monthly basis. For more information, please visit the Anthropological Literature web page (http://isites.harvard.edu/anthrolit)

Edited works indexed in the Anthropological Literature e-resource: 1984-

Current: January 1, 2016

The following list contains 2114 monographs or works in monographic series that may occasionally in the past have been indexed as journals, for example, Quaternary Science Reviews, Quaternaria Nova and Plains Anthropologist. In the e-resource, when searching by title, the user should try both titles, that of the individual monograph and that of the series. For titles that begin with The, A, etc., the initial article has usually been removed.
